

ARTS AND EATS At the RACC

Get out the map, hit the road and enjoy a weekend of fall color, great art and farm to table fare!

The Community Center is once again an official gallery site on the 2015 Arts and Eats tour, Saturday and Sunday, October 17 and 18 from 10-5 both days.

This is the 5th year for Arts and Eats - more than 50 studios, galleries, restaurants and farms will be open to the public for some great back road color tour fun! The sites spread across Barry, Allegan and Kalamazoo counties where you'll find "local art, food and agriculture in those little out of the way places that beg to be discovered!" Time for a road trip, starting at the RACC!

ARTISTS AT THE RACC

This year we will be featuring several well-known and talented local artists: Carol Yager, Marge VeenKant, Janice Garrett, Therese Winnard, Tom Dockham and Peggy Ayers among others. Look for beautiful pastel and watercolor paintings, handmade clocks, cleverly crafted birdhouses, Michigan-shaped chairs, nature photography, cards, whimsical and colorful paper mache sculpture, handmade pillows and much more. Don't miss it!

A&E OFFERS BIKE ROUTES

This year Arts and Eats suggests several bicycle routes throughout the region and you can download and print information about each of the suggested routes from artsandeats.org or design your own route via mapmyride.com. Team Active Cycling and Fitness will provide full support to riders in the field.

Don't forget to pick up your Passport when you visit the sites. This allows you to register for some very cool prizes.

You can pick up your map for the self-guided tour at any Arts and Eats location, or go online to learn more at artsandeats.org or go to our website, richlandareacc.org for the links.

LOCAL SITES ON THE TOUR

Don't forget to visit The Little Yellow Frame Shop, Shiloh Farms, Michael Kifer Studios, W.K. Kellogg Bird Sanctuary, All Girl Band, Pronking Acres Alpaca Farm, Brock Howland and HopHead Farms. They're all from the Greater Gull Lake area and on the tour too! Hungry? Head to Canal St. and Queen's Cupboard!

Arts and Eats is modeled after successful tours nationwide including Blue Coast Artists and Harvest Tour, Toe River Studio Tour near Asheville, North Carolina, and the High Road Artist Tour in New Mexico. The intention is to promote Michigan as a cultural arts and local food destination.

The Artists of ARTS AND EATS

Marge Veenkant is known to many of you but you may not know what an incredibly talented artist she is. She works in just about every medium, creating wonderfully whimsical pieces, all with a great sense of humor.

“I’ve always been drawn to art, love doing fused glass, fiber, working with different textures. I’m really drawn to bright colors, there’s so many things you can do with it,” said Marge. Next project? Something unusual made out of corrugated cardboard. Perhaps you’ll see it at Arts and Eats!

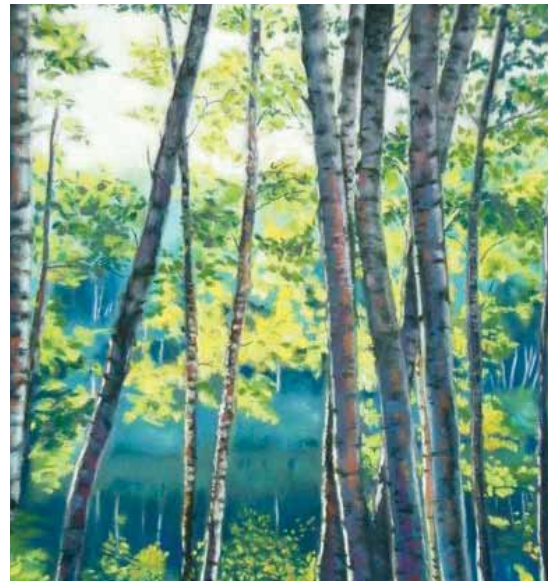

Carol Yager has taught pencil drawing and watercolor classes here and the students have benefited greatly from her knowledge. “I love the opportunity art provides me to examine and interpret the fascinating world around me,” said Carol. She’s taught through the KIA at the RACC, the Portage Senior Center, as a guest visiting artist at Portage Northern, the Parchment Library, and with private instruction students.

Janice Garrett may be familiar to you as well. Her work took best of show at the Richland Art Fair this summer. Her paintings were selling like hotcakes! Janice was an elementary school art teacher and has recently ventured out to pursue her passion. Her paintings are just plain spectacular, filled with detail and creativity.

Thomas Dockham and Peggy Ayers form PICWOOD, USA. These two artists are based in Kalamazoo, Dockham is a maker of custom wood furniture and is also a published photographer with several awards to his credit. Ayers, also an accomplished photographer has her works hanging in both public and private collections. She focuses on the complex settings of nature and wildlife and she is working on a project that will complete the alphabet through natural compositions. Look for notecards, photography, clocks and those beautiful Michigan chairs!

Therese Winnard uses upholstery-weight textiles in her throw pillows. These arty designs will look good and hold their shape no matter how it’s called to service: behind your head as you read in bed, scrunched as lumbar support behind your back, or providing just the right “prop” while you watch your favorite TV shows!

Hope to see you this fall at Arts and Eats, Oct. 17 & 18 from 10 am to 5 pm!

MEET UP AND EAT UP - ANOTHER YEAR OF SUCCESS!

We were delighted to host the Meet Up and Eat Up program again this year. This program provides free meals to kids 18 years old and younger. It was so successful last year, this summer Meet Up and Eat Up was offered at two locations—RACC and Kellogg Elementary—adding breakfast at Kellogg Elementary. Combined, the two locations served 6,127 meals, which is 2,771 more than last year!

We are proud to partner with such a worthwhile organization and are grateful for the GLCS staff and our volunteers who helped make the program a success! We are looking forward to hosting this important program next year.

PROTECT YOURSELF AGAINST CYBER-CRIME!

Be Safe Online, free! Wondering how to protect yourself when you're online using your computer, cellphone, or tablet? Learn how to protect your personal information and your electronics in an understandable, non-tech-heavy and entertaining class suitable for all ages and levels of computer knowledge. This class will be held on Thurs. Sept. 24 from 6-7:30 pm and includes: A brief history of computers and cyber-crime, Real-world stories of hacking and identity theft, including behind-the-headlines details of recent high-profile data breaches (and some you may never have heard about), and Solid steps the average person can take to protect themselves, their families, and their workplace when online - 'Safe-Surfing'.

This class is taught by Andrew Alspach, President and Founder of InfoSafe, headquartered in Richland. Mr. Alspach has over twenty years of experience in corporate and information security, is a Certified Identity Theft Risk Management Specialist. Please RSVP at 629-9430.

LOOKING FOR A VOLUNTEER DRIVER

Like to drive and travel? We're looking for a volunteer to be trained and drive a 10 passenger van. We're partnering with Metro Transit in Kalamazoo. They offer Community Service vans for day trips. This will allow us to drive our guests to places like Saugutuck, Meijer Gardens, Southern Exposure, Marshall, all kinds of places! But... we need a driver! Looking for fun and friendly people who are willing to go on the road with our seniors! The next training session is scheduled for Oct. 7th. Please call Jilisa for more information. 629-9430.

WALK WITH COMMUNITY AND HELP THE PARKS

Interested in getting fit and helping our Township Park apply for grants? Join us for a Community Walk on Weds. Sept. 30 at 6 pm. Meet in the RACC parking lot. Several community members have been walking through the summer to stay in shape. This is in partnership with Richland Township Parks and Recreation. Hope to see you on a Weds. walk!

WELCOME GULL LAKE PARTNERSHIP!

This fall you'll see many new faces at the RACC! We're collaborating with Gull Lake Community Schools to host some of the GL Partnership's wide variety of classes. As a Community Partner, we're providing space to the partnership for art and nature classes, robotics, folk dance and much more. Many of these same instructors will be offering evening classes for the community. This is truly a win for all! Welcome GL Partnership!
